

CHIP OF VIRGINIA AT FAMILIES FORWARD VIRGINIA

A DISCUSSION ABOUT THE COMMUNITY HEALTH NURSING SHORTAGE

Contribute to an important discussion about nursing, its role in community health, and its significant impact for Virginia families.

Led by the CHIP of Virginia program at Families Forward, we'll discuss:

Why is nursing important to the growing field of home visiting?

What organizations in Virginia employ Community Health Nurses?

What are the challenges for meeting the need for Community Health Nurses?

What educational experiences best prepare nurses for community health?

How can we partner with schools of nursing to help meet the need?

Participating schools of nursing include: EMU, GMU, JMU, Liberty, Longwood, ODU, Radford, Shenandoah, UVA and VCU

Morning refreshments and lunch provided

January 23, 2019 / 9:30 am - 1:00 pm

Virginia Hospital & Healthcare Association

4200 Innslake Drive, Glen Allen, Va 23060

Register here by Jan. 18, 2019

<https://institutevsp.org/events/ztjz7A>

QUESTIONS: Contact Judy Smith
Jsmith@familiesforwardva.org

